Why are Home Emergency Plans important?

More than 2.8 million work days are lost every year because of home emergencies

Major suppliers like British Gas and HomeServe, rely heavily on low introductory rates with substantially higher year 2+ pricing (25% TO 100%+)

76% of all emergency call outs are not protected by a plan

Repairs currently cost consumers over £2 BILLION P/A

A study More Than also revealed

- 52% of UK adults have experienced a home emergency
- 66% said home emergencies have had a negative impact on their job
- 52% worry about something going wrong and not being able to fix it
- 55% stating they have difficulty finding a qualified tradesperson
- 29% said the time taken to find the right tradesperson resulted in more damage to their home
